

Mildred E. Mathias Graduate Student Research Grant 2015-16

UC Natural Reserve System

Research grants are available to any graduate student enrolled at a University of California campus other than San Francisco who is using one or more of the 39 sites in the UC Natural Reserve System. A total of $38,000 is available for grants, with a maximum award of $3,000 per applicant. Students from any academic discipline are eligible. Applications and supporting materials are submitted electronically. Go to the URL specified below to begin the application process.

Deadline for submission of application and supporting materials is:
Monday, October 26, 2015, 8AM

For further information and to request application materials, please visit:
<http://mathias.ucnrs.org/requestapp.lasso>